

Hotel Suite of the Week: The Oak Grove Studio Suite at Carmel Valley Ranch

Set in picturesque Carmel, California is the indoor-outdoor Oak Grove Studio Suite at Carmel Valley Ranch. For $400 to $800 a night guests can enjoy gorgeous views of the Carmel Valley tucked away in a serene setting. The one bedroom suite features an outdoor living room, a two-way fireplace, and a concrete soaking tub on the private deck.

The 700-square-foot suite features a two-sided, transparent fireplace taking center-stage in the bedroom. Enjoy it from inside or out on the suite's private deck.

The bedroom area also offers a desk and cozy sitting room space with sofa.

Neutral, country-style decor surrounds a king size bed set against a wooden backdrop.

Off the bedroom is a large outdoor living space with a chaise lounge and wooden love swing for two.

The resort's sense of play and its summer camp inspiration is reflected in the upholstered, oversized swings that hang in the outside living room areas.

On the deck also sits a deep soaking concrete tub. Guests can kick back while taking in the beautiful views of the Carmel valley.

The lobby and Lodge Restaurant is the center of the resort's social activity. Guests can join culinary classes that begin at the ranch's organic garden and move to the Adventure Kitchen where they can prepare farm-to-table dishes.

Enjoy resort amenities including hilltop yoga, 18 holes of golf, hiking trails, a pinot noir vineyard, new equestrian program, swimming pools and an evolving farmstead experience featuring an organic garden, salt house, hen house and apiary with Italian honeybees.
